Media Release

For Immediate Release

The Crail Festival returns for its 37th year.

For 2022, the Crail Festival returns to its traditional dates in the July calendar, coinciding with the summer holidays.

Wednesday 20th July until Saturday 30th July

A Crail tradition, the festival showcases the vibrant music, visual arts and crafts scene centred around the beautiful village of Crail in the East Neuk of Fife. The artists, performers and makers look forward to presenting their work over the festival's ten days.

The Festival's opening night will see Queen of the Blues performing their unique blend of blues and popular music in the Community Hall. Then, plan your summer's live entertainment with these top performing artists; the beautiful voice of Fife's own Charlotte Whittle, classical guitar with Alexandra Whittingham, the spectacular duo Simon Mayor and Hilary James, and the Soul Sisters, followed by the traditional Tenement Jazz Band. The wonderful Illyria is making a return with "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in the Castle grounds, before the festival closes with the multi-talented Richard Digance.
